Newsflash: WorkSafe and ROSA Begin Refresh of Activity Safety Guidelines

Kia ora

WorkSafe has engaged the Register of Outdoor Safety Auditors (ROSA) to develop new Activity Safety Guidelines (ASGs) and update existing ones.

This is great news as the ASGs are a cornerstone of good practice for operators and auditors. As the sector evolves, it's important these guidelines continue to reflect current, credible, and sector-led standards. You can learn more about how they're developed via the ASG Development Process on the Support Adventure website.

If you would like to be involved, please contact the facilitator directly. They'll be forming a small volunteer Working Group, as well as a wider Consultation Group. Remember, ASGs help define what good practice looks like, so this is your chance to contribute.

The planned ASGs and their facilitators are listed below:
